Maison Alma brings bold prints to Faena Bazaar: Jungla kimono wrap coat, $2,410.

Miami Beach's Faena District reinvented the Mid-Beach neighborhood with a six-block mix of arresting architecture, destination restaurants, and dramatic guest rooms in the Faena Hotel Miami Beach. Now the project's creative force, Argentine entrepreneur Alan Faena, aims to reinvent retail via the 20,000-square-foot Faena Bazaar. The new addition, housed in a remodeled 1939 beach hotel, combines chichi standalone boutiques — Linda Farrow eyewear, shoes by Pedro García, breezy women's wear from Adriana Iglesias — with cross-brand displays that mix Brock Collection jeans, Mercedes Salazar jewelry, and Rianna + Nina kaffans. A ground-floor art gallery welcomes shoppers to the design-centric micro mall. 3400 Collins Avenue.
